Ohio Western Horse Association

Sponsorship Program

History

The Ohio Western Horse Association was one of the first documented open show organizations in Ohio in 1945. OWHA held most of its early shows at the county fairgrounds in Marion, Ohio and the Ashland County fairgrounds.

Today, OWHA remains an active open show association with its shows now located more in West Central and Northwest Ohio at such places as: Ada, Celina, Greenville, Kenton, Lewisburg, Marion, Marysville, Mt. Gilead, Paulding, Putnam County, St. Marys, Swanton and Van Wert.

Purpose of OWHA

The purpose of the OWHA is:

1. To create, stimulate and promote exhibiting of the horse.
2. To promote exhibits, events, contest expositions and shows.
3. To promote interest in horses among younger horsemen.
4. To encourage the use of the rules for holding and judging events.

OWHA, is a not for profit organization supported by entry fees, fundraisers, sponsorships, donations, membership fees, etc. to meet its expenses.

Membership

OWHA has approximately 400 members. Forty percent of our membership is youth members, but we have a wide age group of exhibitors from the age of 2 years old to over 60 years old. They are from over 30 different counties in Ohio and Indiana, with the biggest percentage coming from Allen county (20%), Auglaize county (16%), Hardin county (11%) and Mercer county (10%). Last year in 2007 show season, we had approximately 7,000 entries in our OWHA shows.

Purpose of Sponsorship

To provide an avenue for sponsors to advertise to all of our OWHA members, and to provide supplement income to our association to pay for year end awards to recognize our members.

Levels of Sponsorships

We have five levels of sponsorship determined by the amount of money and/or services you contribute. This would reflect in the amount of exposure and recognition you would receive from OWHA. Levels of sponsorships:
